LITTLE FAVORABLE FOR BULLS OR BEARS.

Speculation Was Generally Slow and No Features of Especial Interest Noted.

Office Republic, Washington, Nov. 28, 1900. There were no important changes in the eculative situation to-day, the different markets simply fluctuating in a narrow groove, and in accordance with the characof the news and conditions developed during the day, and which at no time were of a startling nature. Speculative interest was no better than it has been for some time of late, and the trading in the local pit on 'change was, as usual, of a limited haracter. Strength was not conspicuous in any way of the leading markets, the leaning, if anything, being toward a lower level of values, a condition which was most marked in the higher-priced grains, cheaper and coaser grains being somewhat better, sustained, but at the same time showing no gains of importance one way or the other, being most of the time nearly stationary as regards prices and very duli Speculatively.

Neither speculative element interested in wheat was in it to-day to any great extent, so very light was the speculative interest manifested throughout the day, and so few were the developments of importance to the trade. to the trade. A tame and listless condi-tion of affairs, showing a disposition to re-flect overtures in any way likely to change the market materially or stimulate trading to any marked extent. The disposition shown to take the long side, which was one of the most encouraging features of yester-day's market, appeared to have entirely disappeared this morning and was replaced by a seiling pressure induced by the character of the earlier advices, especially those from the other side and which contained nothing a sciling pressure insured by the property of the care side and which contained nothing that could be construed as favorable from a buil standpoint. Liverpool cables were again a great disappointment, that market being reported ½d lower and quiet. The opening here was weak, with the Dec. option taking the lead in this respect, owing to the fact that considerable wheat for long country account came on the market right at the opening. That option opening that the opening is the fact that considerable wheat for long country account came on the market right at the opening. There was even less than the usual interest taken to-day in the local corn market and the trading was of the lightest. The weather, which for several days has been one of the chief influences, was again a factor. It was much milder than it has been and the indications were that it would continue so for some little time, and scattered rains were said to have fallen in the West. An easier feeling was established early and the sharp break in the Nov. option at Chicago added to this weakness, and Liverpool, which declined 3,d, also had a bearish effect. The opening here was 1-16c lower for May at 354c. Receipts at primary markets were good, but so were the shipments, the former amounting to 82,000 bu, a gainst 508,000 bu. [ast year, including $3,500 bu, here, against $3,300 bu, a year, see $100 bu, the clearances being reported at 611,000 the clearances being reported at 611,000 making the total for the week 3,549,000 against 3,679,000 bu. last week. Bradout., against 3,672,000 bu. last week. Brad-street's available was decreased 1,220,000 bu., against 276,000 bu. increase in the regular visible. Late in the day Dec. sold at 34% of and May at 35%, which was %%% off for the day and at which it closed sellers. Dec. recovered and closed the same as yesterday at 34% and Nov. hominally lower at 35c. New York reported 35 loads taken for ex-port.

The speculative market for oats continued to show considerable strength, but the trading was light, as usual. May sold at 24 go and closed at that. Nov. was 1/20 better at 23 /20 bid and Dec. unchanged at 230 bid. There was no increase in the receipts, which were reported at 270,000 bu, at primary markets, against 41,000 bu, a year ago. St. Louis received 13,200 bu, against 16,500 bu. last year. Shipments were 270,000 bu. Bradstreet's reported a decrease in the available supply of 1,878,000 bu, where the regular visible fell off 1,063,000 bu. The exports were 63,000 bu.

European reports to the Department of Agriculture show that the condition of fail-sown wheat, spelt and rye in Germany is considerably above the medium. The preliminary official estimates of French cereal crops for 1999 ahow the production of 43,612,498 bu. of barley and 53,577,918 bu. cats. Th. final estimate for the 1835 crop is 43,05,121 bu. of barley and 750,-435,560 bu. of oats. Both grains were a little lighter in yield than in 1890, besides returning a smaller yield per acre in measured bushels. German Government advices from Chile report that for the first six months of this year the weather has been favorable to the warat newly sown for the crop of 1990-1901, and that for the same period the Chilean exports of wheat were very small, due to the abort crop of 1890-1902. The Roumanian Government reports give 3,25,841 acres of wheat in 1800, with a production of 54,62,368 bu.

balse, and the maximum 11,000,000 bales.

—The week's clearances in wheat and flour promise to show little change from last week's, which were 8,827,900 bu.

—Cash sales in Chicago yesterday were 124,000 bu. wheat, 200,000 No. 3 corn and 40,000 cats. The seaboard reported 425,000 bu. wheat, 235,000 bu. corn and 65,000 bu. oats taken for export.

—The figures so far on the in and out movement at the principal markets suggest a fair decrease in the wheat visible, in all probability exceeding the decrease of 155,000 bu. one year ago.

Cauliflower was scarce and firm at unchanged prices.

Cucumbers were dull and slow.

Other veretables were quiet and unchanged.

Apples were in active demand, and the market was strong. Receipts, which were mostly of Eastern fruit, were not sufficient to supply the demand, as both shippers and local packers were in the market for good fruit. Receipts of Western fruit were heavier than they have been running.

Pears were scarce, firm and in good demand. Officings were light.

Grapes were in fair demand, and the market was firm, as offerings were light.

Cranberries were firm and in good demand, with offerings light. Oranges were steady and in fair demand. Of-erings were liberal.

Lemons were quiet and steady at unchanged

Lemons were quiet and sceany as microsprices.

alteration as there was being in the way of improvement at the immediate start. Liverpool was a trifle less weak this morning than the Chicago market was yesterday, and that was the unstable busis on which the bulls built their hopes for a few minutes. At the end of that time they had once again to regret their impulsive trust in immaterial things, as they saw the buil sentiment in the pit dissolving like hot steam from an escape pipe on a trosty morning.

Futures at Liverpool were from unchanged to 15d lower, and at Paris from 3c to le a bu. down. Antwerp quotations were unchanged. Chicago received 162 cars, against 483 a week ago. Minneapolis and Duluin got 425 cars, against 483 a week ago, and 549 carloads the corresponding day of the previous year. Shipments from Chicago were 500,000 bu., notwithstanding the 3c lake freight now existing.

The advance in insurance rates that will be in force Saturday, from .40 per cent to 1 per cent, will add the equivalent of about 15c a bu, more to the cost of water carriage between Chicago and Buffalo, and that rate of insurance will only be in effect inve days before another advance to a rate that will practically prohibit further shipments by lake for the season will go into effect, and trade will, after that, have to face the carrying of the 18,00,000 bu, in stock here till spring.

The total receipts at Western primary markets were 711,000 bu, against $12,000 bu, in stock here till spring.

Local receipts were 294 cars, only 12 of which were contract, and only about 50,000 bu, contract corn was transferred from unlicensed houses. Estimated receipts for Friday were 350 cars. Seaboard clearances were 612,000 bu. Liverpool quoted futures 34d down for Nov.; spot corn 44d lower. Closing price here for Nov. corn was 41c. Dec., that opened at 35%c, declined to 35%c, and closed at 35%c bid, against 350 yesterday.

Oats.

The oats market was dull, as usual, and the only business doing in the crowd was changing from Dec. to May, the spread widening to 2%c between those months. Besides the duliness, there was a heavier feeling than has prevalled previously, and the price dropped a little. Receipts were only 50 cars and shipments 24,000 bu., against 230,000 bu, the year previous. Seaboard clearances were 65,000 bu. Dec. closed at 21%c, after selling down to 21%c21%c, the final price showing a loss of 1/2c since yesterday.

The barley market ruled dull at 1c lower for some grades, while others were reported as unchanged. Malting grades averaged from 45c to 60c, and feed grades from 35c to 40c. Receipts were light-25 cars-and shipments 23,070 bu. New York exported nothing.

Flaxseed. Flaxseed.

There was little business transacted in the fiaxseed market to speak of, even at a deciline of 14,422 for the more distant futures. Receipts were very light—14 cars—and shipments nothing. The market acted in sympathy with the weakness of the Northwestern markets, which were off more than the market here. The market closed with all of its early loss for futures and 14,636 for spot seed. No. 1 Northwestern finished at $1.634, and No. 1 Southwestern finished at $1.634, Nov. closed at $1.62 nominally. Dec. sold at $1.614 only and closed at that price. May opened at $1.60 and rested at that. No. 1 changed to Dec. at 142c above the latter. Dec. changed to May at a premium of 4c in favor of the former. Minneapolis receipts were 29 cars, against 21 cars the same day last year. Duluth's arrivals were 85 cars, against 47 cars a year ago. The market was irregular at the last point mentioned from an advance of 4c to a decline of as much, and closed from 4c to 2c lower.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chiengo, III., Nov. 23.—The Nov. corn deal slipped to-day into the limbo of past events. George H. Phillips, the young speculator, who originally conceived the idea that Pattern Sept. and Oct. corn operations had been the means of sweeping the Western country bare of old corn, was acknowledged by tho shorts to have reasoned well, and failing in their efforts to procure cornected in the country bare of old corn, was acknowledged by tho shorts to have reasoned well, and failing in their efforts to procure cornected in the country bare of old corn, was acknowledged by those botts to have reasoned well and, as he might have done, take all they had. He allowed them to settle 62,009 bu. on a basis of 60 ac bu. and pocketed the difference between that and 37c, calling the deal off at that, Nov. corn, that closed yesterday, and for futures were easy, but followed the control of the country bare of old corn, that closed yesterday worth 50c, left off this afternoon at the other country bare of old corn, that closed yesterday worth 50c, left off this afternoon at the other country bare of old corn, that closed yesterday worth 50c, left off this afternoon at the other country bare of the c

St. Lonis, Wednesday, Nov. 28, 1990.

CATTLE-Native Trade-A moderately large run of cattle materialized in the native cattle yards, but the proportion of good, desirable offerings was very small, which made the supply of common to trashy kinds exceptionally liberal. No choice beef steers were to be had, and the medium to pish grades available were slow, rregular selfers, but averaged about a dime lower and in extreme cases showed a decime of 15c to 19c. Common, half-fat and canner butcher cows and nefters were very much in evidence and buyers forced a deep in values of 16c on these kinds, Medium to inferior stock steers and feeders were lot to 15c off and no strictly good classes were on ofter in first hands. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 23.—Cattle—A moderate supply was expected to-day, as to-morrow will be thanksgiving Day, and no big receipts are needed just at this time, owing to the greatly increased sales of poultry for the holiday feasting. Hence there was universal surprise when to-day's receipts were posted on the bulletia beards in the Exchange building at 25,000 cattle, against 19 46 received Wednesday of list week. That brings the receipts for the first half of the week up to about 46,600 head, as against 57,657 for the same time last week and 20,565 for the corresponding time a year ago. With such a liberal supply on the eve of a generally observed holiday, a bad market was inevitable, and while the best light and medium waters for these breed in the contract.

brings the receipts for the first half of the week up to about 46,600 head, as against 57,607 for the same time last week and 20,202 for the corresponding time a year ago. With such a liberal supply on the eve of a generally observed holiday, a bad market was inevitable, and while the heat light and medium weight fat steers brought steady prices, other kinds of steers declined generally logice and were very slow in finding buyers. Dressed beer buyers and Eastern shippers were conditing their purchases largely to good the continue on a liberal scale, the receipts for the first half of the week footing up about 117,000 head, against 127,200 for the same time last week and 113,000 a year ago for a like period. To-day's receipts were unexpectedly large, being about 42,000, and the supply amounted to some 46,000, as 4,000 swine were curried over last night. Prices were very irregular, starting of 24962 lower, then advancing nearly as much and simally weakening. Hogs sold at an extreme range of $4,500,400, largely at $4,502450, and ples sold at $464.73, according to weight, the light of the week the receipts foot up at about 44,600 sheep and lambs, as against 42,506 for the same period of last week and 33,557 for the same period of last week and 33,557 for the same period of last week and 33,557 for the same period day, with an estimated run of 15,000 head and a fairly active general demand. Choice flocks of sheep and lambs continue comparatively few, and the average offerings grade poorly and sell low. Sheep were salable at $1,502.50 for culls up to $2,7594.35 for fair to choice wethers, yearlings selling at the top.

Speculative Situation Displayed More Weakness and Closed Lower.

St. Louis, Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1993.
The speculative cotton situation again showed a weak undertone to-day, and on selling orders the markets gradually declined, though the losses for the day were not large. Southern markets were lower and Liverpool cables disappointing, that market ruling lower all day, closing 3½ points off on heavy selling, but spots there were unchanged. The crop movement was not very large, but still the markets on this side continued to show weakness, there being a decline of 3 to 19 points at New York early in the day. There was some light buying late, but not sufficient to improve the market any, and the close showed not declines for the day of 5 to 17 points. Spots were unchanged.

Local Market—Quiet and unchanged; sales none.

New York, Nov. 22.—Encitement and appelled in to-day's market. The customary pueholiday evening up occurred and served to bring about frequent orders of buying and selling, but, as a rule, trading was small and of a professional nature with the trade all at seconing to the semisensational fluctuations abroad and the more or less conflicting rumors that strong parties were making a bold attempt at ranipulation. The market opened weak, 2013 points lower, under liquidation and heavy outside seiling, mostly for foreign secount. The haste to unload followed a fail of 607 points in the English market, said by private parties to have resulted from a drive by interests known to represent influential American parties. Soon afterwards the story gained circulation, and was quite generally accepted as true, that a leading Philese dephile axport house and several well-known New Orieans parties had formed a plan to manipulation.

New York, Nov. 28.—Wool steady.
Boston, Nov. 28.—The American Wool and Coton Reporter will say of the wool trade to-morrow:

The wool market has been rather active the past week, the sales aggregating 4.750,000 lbs. There has been considerable quiet looking around for all classes of wool and the demand has been strictly for consumption. Reasonable prices have been offered and have been accepted. The Wanskuck and Tarlington mills have taken some fair-cired lines of wool, as well as a number of the smaller concerns while the American Wooleen Company have been buying moderately, but closely and carefully. A larger business would probably have been transacted had it not been for the extremely unfavorable weather which has millitated against an active demand for model. Advices from the West continue to indicate a very buillish feeling. Owners of wool continue to hold it at high prices. Prices are naturally in favor of the buyer, although there is no pressure to sell wool, and quotations are unchanged. The alles inls week in Boston amounted to 176,500 lbs. Gomestic, and 600,000 lbs. rowlenn, making a total of 4.750,500, against a total of 18,35,600 for the corresponding week last year. The sales shy Jan. 1 were 182,341,100 lbs., against M7,852,572 for the corresponding time last year."
